RACHMANINOFF GRATEFUL.

To the Editor of The New York Times:

May I express through the courtesy of your paper my thanks to all those who attended my last recital at Carnegie Hall on April 22 in benefit of the Russian War Invalids outside of Russia?

The gross receipts of the concert were $6,081.50 and the expenses (rent of the hall, tickets, advertising) being $1,445.80, the net proceeds amounted to $4,635.70.

This sum has been forwarded by me through the National City Bank of New York to General N. Baratoff, President of the Society for the Relief of Russian War Invalids outside of Russia.

I take the opportunity particularly to thank my manager, Mr. C. J. Foley, who has generously donated his share to the same cause.

SERGEI RACHMANINOFF.
