

Münchener neueste Nachrichten, 21.12.1929, p. 4

Downloaded from Deutsches Zeitungsportal (deutsche-digitale-bibliothek.de), 2026

Donations for the poor.

As previously announced, Rachmaninoff, in recognition of the aid granted by the German side to the Russian refugees. During the meeting of the City Council, Mayor Dr. Scharnagl was able to announce various generous donations for the poor. The pianist transferred 2000 marks to the City Council, of which 1000 marks are earmarked for the support of the poor and 1000 marks for the German-Russian colony. In addition, Privy Councillor Scharrer also made 1000 marks available for the city's poor. The City Council expressed its warmest thanks for the donations.

[Translation: Google]