THE GIRL SCOUTS OF WEBSTER

Girl Scouts, like Boy Scouts, are found all over the world. When Sir Robert Baden-Powell formed the first troop of Girl Scouts, 600 girls enrolled themselves, but as the original project did not provide for girls of similar organization was formed with various occupations properly adapted for girls. This was called the Girl Guides, in America, in March, 1912, the first patrol of Girl Guides were enrolled in Savannah, Ga., by Juliette Low, national headquarters, were established in Washington, D. C., in 1913, and the name was then changed to Girl Scouts, because the object of the organization is to promote the Scout Law—Truth, Loyalty, Helpfulness, Friendliness, Courtesy, Kindness, Obedience, Cheerfulness, Purity and Thrift. The movement has grown and spread widely in all headquarters were organized from Washington to New York.

In Webster the first meeting in the interests of the Girl Scouts held on May 14, 1918. In that same month troops were organized under the leadership of Cleveland as Commissioner. At present, there are three troops, Miss Louisa, Healy, Miss Lillian, and Miss Anna, and Miss Marie, Whitney are captains. Mrs. Francis Babcock is commissioner. Early last year a room was hired and furnished for the use of the Girl Scouts, and it is for help in paying the rent of this room, and for other expenses, a public appeal is to be made to the public between Nov. 6 and 15.

Some of the funds collected must go to headquarters for the support of the work, and for extending and maintaining the organization in non-political and non-partisan. Its object is to help towards the best development of girls physically, mentally and morally, and it is hoped that all will commend itself to many.

It is a rule of the organization that the dues are not to be collected money, so the pledge slips only will be in their hands.
