MRS. ALFRED LEE JR. ENTERTAINS IN HONOR ALABAMA VISITORS

An unusually delightful social courtesy was that of Tuesday afternoon when Mrs. Alfred W. Lee Jr. was hostess at a lovely bridge party at her home in Franklin Terrace, honoring Mrs. Leman Ward and Mrs. W. M. Conine of Camp Hill, Ala., the guests of Dr. and Mrs. W. Theodore Langley.

St. Patrick's day was commemorated in every detail, the colors of green and white prevailing, an attractive assortment of candy, gypophylla, white snap decorations and ferns helped to accentuate the dainty color scheme. Numerous shamrocks and other emblems of old Erin were also used to advantage.

Scenes for the card games and other bridge accessories were in the forms of shamrocks and after several games of progressive bridge had been played, scores were collected and prizes awarded. Mrs. J. Olin Laney who held highest score, was awarded a lovely brass tray, while Mrs. E. A. Douglas who held the least score was commended with a piece of Orlando pottery. The two guests of honor, Mesdames Ward and Conine were also presented with pieces of Orlando pottery as gifts from their hostess.

When the games had been concluded and the tables spread with dainty covers the breakfast assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Bole, Mrs. Hugh Lalor, Mrs. Edmund Meisch, Mrs. Harry Lee and Mrs. C. E. Myers, served stuffed green peas, salad, rolled sandwiches tied with green ribbons, individual coffee in white and topped with shamrocks and mint punch.

Enjoying the cordial hospitality of this charming hostess were Mrs. W. M. Conine, Mrs. Leman Ward, Mrs. W. Theodore Langley, Mrs. John Meisch, Mrs. Calvia Tenue, Mrs. Ernest Household, Mrs. Floyd Palmer, Mrs. Stewart Dunton, Mrs. E. C. Benson, Mrs. K. B. McCracken, Mrs. E. A. Douglas, Mrs. William Moore Scott, Mrs. M. S. Wiggins, Mrs.
